

discover local life on silk island

6 Hours

Uncover the vibrant culture and traditions of Silk Island as you explore local markets, artisan workshops, and lush landscapes!

Escape the hustle and bustle of Phnom Penh and immerse yourself in the serene beauty of Koh Dach, or Silk Island, just a short distance away. Spend the day with Sopheap, a local resident with a background in creative arts, and her expat husband, as they guide you through the island's rich culture and thriving silk weaving industry.

Discover charming homes where local artisans showcase their handicrafts and food production techniques. Participate in a hands-on noodle-making session with a skilled local who has dedicated her life to perfecting this traditional craft. Before concluding your visit, take a heartfelt trip to the very school Sopheap attended as a child, where you'll meet the headmaster and have the opportunity to donate essential school supplies, making a meaningful impact on the community.
