

exploring rural life on koh kret

4.5 Hours

Discover the charm of Koh Kret's rural life – a peaceful island escape filled with culture and tradition.

On this half-day adventure, stroll along the island's pedestrian-only walkways and soak in its rural charm. Visit a local pottery workshop where you'll have the opportunity to craft your very own terracotta pot, guided by skilled artisans.

Escape the hustle and bustle of Bangkok and uncover the serene beauty of Koh Kret, a hidden gem nestled in the Chao Praya River. This quaint island, formed nearly 300 years ago, is one of Thailand's oldest Mon settlements, offering a fascinating glimpse into the lives of the Mon people, who thrived between the 6th and 10th centuries.

Afterward, experience the culinary delights of the island by making "kanom krok," traditional coconut custard-filled cakes using a terracotta stove. This unique excursion provides a perfect blend of cultural exploration and hands-on activities, making for an unforgettable day in the heart of rural Thailand.
